We received an email from the Kodiak Lions – they would like to donate to help our new club get going.
We welcome the donation, and will get back to them.

Lions Club Mid-winter conference is in Seward this weekend, starting Thursday night through Saturday.
Gaming information is to be presented on Saturday.

had a blast, and strongly encouraged all of us to participate. Not just to help out, but it's fun.

We have received donations:

- $100 from the Kachemak Bay Lions from their General Fund
- A box of buttons and small banner from the Mendenhall Flying Lions

Garrett Moore volunteered to help develop a plan for vests, pins, etc. Clint Hodges and Jocelyn Fenton volunteered to help.

General comment from TJ Clark: So far we seem to be receiving a lot from other clubs, and we need to give back. TJ's recommended rules for things we do as a club:

1. Serve the community
2. Have Fun
3. Bring positive name recognition to the Club.

Garrett Moore wants us to help fund raise towards ASPCA. TJ – "Great idea, run with it."

Other fundraising ideas:

- Maintain a presence as Lions at car shows next summer. We may be able to work at the Midnight Sun Street Rod Association's Eagle River car show and their mid-September show
- Will we place cars in Dimond Center again this year? Possibly fundraise for Toys for Tots, or the Mountain View Lions Community Gift program
 - o Garrett Moore will check with Dimond Center
 - o If cars go in the mall, Nick Spiropolos and Kent Hamilton will collect toys from the cars, with help from Garth and Jocelyn Fenton

Lions items closed.

ASCC items:

Ice Racing: Dave Burke isn't here, and there's a rumor the MatSu Resort might be closed.

(somebody) mentioned rumors of old racecars that may be for sale. If anyone hears, send it to board members on the web site's contact page and we can spread the word.

Autocross: This summer's multi-club autocross season was a great success, and all three clubs are already planning the 2011 season.

Notable finishes from ASCC members:

- Clint Hodges, 4th overall
- Tank, 6th overall
- Gene Augustine, 10th overall
- Dwight Bowden, 11th overall

Message from Ernie Hall: Even though there still won't be a Grand Prix this spring, Greater Anchorage Inc (Fur Rondy) still WANTS to hold the Grand Prix. If funding came through to be able to hold the event, they would.

Meeting Adjourned 8:45.
